

CASA of Troup County Position Opening

Local non-profit Court Appointed Special Advocate program seeks a dynamic, high-energy and skilled Executive Director who will lead the organization to effectively achieve its mission and goals. Ideally seeking an individual who has in-depth experience in the “DFCS world.” S/he will have full responsibility and authority for the management and coordination of the organization’s operations and finances, supervision of the staff and their activities, and implementation of agency’s initiatives, plans and programs to take the agency to its next level of excellence. Further, the Executive Director will be agency’s primary representative to its constituents, the broader community and serve as the chief fundraiser, spokesperson, and advocate. The next Executive Director of the agency will have strong ties to the Troup County community, ideally living within or very close to the county.
