To our CASA on the Catwalk Committee Members, Sponsors, Table Hosts, Tickets Holders, and Supporters,

With the uncertainty and rapidly evolving changes surrounding COVID-19, to mitigate the potential to spread the coronavirus, and out of an abundance of caution and concern for the health of all families, volunteers, supporters, and staff, the 2020 CASA on the Catwalk, scheduled for Tuesday, March 24, will be postponed until a later date. While we are deeply disappointed, we made this decision with the health and well-being of our guests, loyal supporters, and volunteers as our paramount concern.

This annual event is made possible only through the time and talents of our amazing committee of more than 30 individuals who help bring together 350 friends and family. As we shift to taking preventative measures and supporting those individuals most in need, we will communicate future plans with the hope that you and your guests will be able to join us at a later date. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or concerns.

We know that your hearts, as ours, are focused on individuals who are most vulnerable during this time. Postponing this event is our small, but significant, contribution to our shared public health responsibility. We are extremely grateful for your understanding, patience, and continued support.

With much appreciation,

Jen King
